Read correspondence ending with Deputy Commissioner's Yadee no 69 dated 10th July 1908 recommending one Sitaboy amma for a Stipend.

The woman referred to is present at the meeting and says that she is of Rajput caste. The Rules on the subject of the administration of this Charity as contained in Government Proceedings no 1940 Mewz. F 91-92 dated Bangalore 20th March 1903 restrict the selection of Stipendiaries to only 3 classes viz Mohomedans, Christians and Brahmins. The intentions of the Founder of the Charity are clear viz that the three above classes alone should be benefited by the Fund The Board feel that they have no discretion in the matter and regret that deserving as the woman is of help owing to her destitute and pitiable condition, they are unable to do anything for her.

With reference to the question of filling up one place among Brahmins, two among Mohomedans and two among Christians.— Resolved as follows: ——

Venkuboji, widow of Sobba Rao, aged 80 years and infirm be appointed among Brahmins and given no 19

Lydiajamma aged 30 years widow of Abraham, lame in both feet be appointed among Protestant Christians and given no. 46

Joseph aged 50 years son of Kala — suffering from Asthma be appointed among Roman Catholic Christians and given no. 47

Khatunaba, widow of late Pesh Imam Farid Khan, aged 27 years and suffering from Tuberculosis be appointed for a period of 12 years, until her boy who is now 6 years old grows up and is able to earn livelihood. This is given no. 93.

As regards the filling up of another place among Mohomedans, the question of selecting a suitable person be referred to the members of Seringapatam.

Charity Fund Roll, are among the Brahmins, 2 among the Christians
and 2 among the Mohomedans,
and that the Committee recommend to fill up these vacancies
the appointment of Venkuboyp
among the Brahmins, Lidiyamma
and Joseph among the Christians and Khatmabi among the Mohomedans leaving the question of selecting a suitable person for the remaining
one vacancy among the Mohomedans,
to the members of Seringapatam.
These recommendations are approved.
